!Unsettling! The Game
Wolfe Island Community Centre Grounds

Non-Indigenous Circle, Open to the public

A life-sized, interactive, board game that uses play as a way to aid Canadian settlers and immigrants to examine their lack of knowledge about the First Nations, Métis and Inuit. The players are the pieces, moving around the board at the throw of a dice, answering different types of questions in a myriad of creative ways depending on the colour of the square they land on. The challenge: who will reach Truth first?
